SALVIDERE CHAMP OF TWO-YEAR-OLDS

His Victories Have Placed Hitchcock Second Among Winning Owners.

SUPREMACY UNQUESTIONED

Defeat of Electioneer, De Mund, and Other Crack Youngsters Dispels All Doubt.

Thought Salvidere Mere Plater.

In the midst of all the glory that he has won Salvidere has made at least one man sad. Robert Tucker, the trainer of the late S. S. Brown's horses, which were recently sold at the order of W. H. Brown, evidently overlooked the son of Belvidere. Salvidere had been saddled for only one race-a defeat-by Tucker, who, it is said, got an idea that the youngster was only an ordinary plater. When he was put into the sales ring, however, Madden, unlike Tucker, saw at a glance that the gelding pos- Stakes, for three-year-olds, one mile

If Salvidere had been a starter in the Futurity he would have come very near winning. He had the Indian sign on Electioneer, and on Saturday he showed beyond a question of doubt that De Mund, who ran third in the Futurity, Ballot, and Water Pearl were not in the same class with him. In races when at his best, as he was in the Junior Champion, De Mund has never been outrun until the fag end, except by Salvidere. Turfmen who saw the champion two-year-old actually catch and pass De Mund on the far turn, when the $45,000 colt was under full headway on Saturday, said that it was a marvelous exhibition of speed and stamina.

if only for the fact that it settles the much discussed question of two-year-old supremacy, which has been a puzzla all the season until now.

The most interesting event this week at Gravesend will be the match race between Roseben and Lady Amelia next Thursday. They will carry weight for age, and as both are five-year-olds and are in receipt of the usual sex allowance of three pounds, they will carry 123 pounds each. The distance is called by the Brooklyn Jockey Club "about six furlongs," but it is in reality only five and three-fourths furlongs. Both Roseben and Lady Amelia will be in superb condition when they face the starter and each will have an army of followers, which means a world of speculation.

It is not probable that there will be any sort of price against either, as they are thought to be evenly matched. Both Trainer Weir, the handler of Roseben, Trainer Weir, the handler of Roseben, and Jack Joyner, who will saddle the famous mare, are sure of victory. In fact they are chuckling over what each believe is a soft thing.

If Aleck Snields' Halifax, another wonderful sprinter, should be entered in the sweepstakes on Thursday the race would become even more interesting to the public, with the prospect of a new world's record for the distance.
